10. PERSONAL STATEMENT

On separate sheet(s) of paper, please provide us with a typed personal statement. This is an opportunity to assist us with our “whole person” evaluation concept. Your statement provides an opportunity for you to tell us about yourself and to share with us some insights into your personality, leadership, character, aspirations, community service, and life experiences that may not be reflected in objective scores. We are interested in a student body with diverse perspectives and backgrounds and seek to select students who are serious about undertaking their legal education and who are committed to the tenets of the legal professional. We particularly encourage you to describe how your personal circumstances (such as your ethnic or racial identity, social or economic background or gender) and life experiences might bring diverse perspective to our academic community or prepared you for the study of law.

An application that does not include a personal statement is considered incomplete.

11. APPLICATION FEE

LSAC online application fee: $25

Paper application fee: $50

My application fee is waived because:

- I have been granted an LSAC fee waiver (documentation required)
- I received this application from an LSAC Forum—location:

12. CERTIFICATION

1. I certify that the information I have submitted is complete and correct to the best of my knowledge.
2. I agree to communicate promptly to the Admissions Office, in writing, any changes in any matters covered herein, even if such changes occur after I have enrolled.
3. I understand that upon the discovery of any intentional inaccuracy, or omission, the Law School may revoke my admission, refuse to award a degree, or recommend revocation of any degree earned.
4. I understand bar examiners in the state where I might apply for admissions to the bar may ask for more comprehensive disclosures than are requested on this application and may refuse admission to the bar based upon such circumstances (arrests or charges that fall short of conviction).
