

Professor Angela Dixon Presents at Conference at Boston University School of Law

MC Law Professor Angela Dixon recently presented her ongoing research at Boston University School of Law, host of the Lutie Lytle Conference. Professor Dixon presented a work in progress, “State of Emergency or Exigent Circumstance Exception to Deliberate Indifference.”

Her work is situated at the intersection of several of her research and teaching interests: Criminal

Procedure, Ethics, and Health Law. To read more about Professor Dixon’s background and experience see <https://law.mc.edu/faculty/directory/adixon3>