

HBCU Feeder School Scholarships – For New Students

Mississippi College School of Law will award a full tuition scholarship to the top applicant from each HBCU who meets the qualifications set forth herein. In order to be considered for the scholarship, the applicant must have an LSAT score of at least 148 and a GPA of 3.5 or higher.

In addition, MC Law will offer up to 3 additional scholarships of at least $20,000 to qualified applicants from each HBCU with an LSAT of 148 and a 3.0 GPA or higher. Additional scholarships may be offered to students meeting MC Law's general merit-based scholarship eligibility requirements.

HBCU Feeder School Scholarship recipients are chosen using a “whole person” approach taking into consideration leadership, service, and character as well as GPA and LSAT score. Applicants are automatically considered for this scholarship with no separate application.

The application deadline to be considered for the HBCU Feeder School Scholarship is March 1st. HBCU Feeder School Scholarship designations will be made by March 15th . If an applicant applies later than the March 1st deadline, the applicant can still be considered for one of our merit-based scholarships.
